

GRANITE AND ICE

Day 1 : Private transfer to Torres del Paine (Laguna Amarga entrance) to Las Torres Refuge , there we leave the equipment and hike to Las Torres viewpoint through Asencio Valley (7 hrs). A narrow path borders the Asencio River, cross a small forest of native trees and goes up a great granite rock valley; here at 1000 Mts. high we will have the best view of Torres Del Paine. Lodging, dinner and breakfast at the refuge.

Day 2: After breakfast, a transfer back to Laguna Amarga will make the connection with the Regular Bus to Pudeto Refuge. A Catamaran will move us up on the green waters of Pehoe Lake (30 min.) Then we will start the trekking to Grey Refuge (4 hrs.) surrounding Grey Lake and its floating icebergs carried by the wind to its shore. Time to take a rest (afternoon) - Lodging, dinner and breakfast at the refuge.

Day 3: We will visit the Grey Glacier Viewpoint at the rising sun, that way we will meet the magic blue of its millenary ice (2 hrs.) Trek back to Pehoe Refuge to go over the lake again to Pudeto Refuge- Private Transfer to Puerto Natales.

SERVICIES INCLUDED

- Specialized Local Guide
- Regular Bus to Torres del Paine (R/T)
- Camping Equipment (Tent – Sleeping Bags – Insulate)
- Food at the Shelters (Breakfast – Lunch – Dinner)
- Catamaran Boat of the Pehoe Lake (R/T)
- Camp Sites
- Internal Transfer